

My name is Debra Richards and I am currently a Director at Netflix covering studio and production affairs for APAC and public policy for Australia and New Zealand. With over 35 years in the media and screen industry as regulator, advocate, industry partner and practitioner I feel I can make a valuable contribution to the work of the AVIA Board and the organisation. I have been involved with AVIA and its predecessor for a number of years and consider this an opportunity to contribute beyond my regular participation, if accepted.
